Dear Parents & Carers

This half term has raced by and we are now just one week away from the first half term holiday of this academic year. Thanks again to everyone for getting children into school happy, it is a pleasure to see so many smiling, polite children (and parents) at the school gates every morning.

We are all looking forward to next week Parents Evenings, when we get to meet you all and discuss the fantastic work the children have been doing and what they will be doing as the year progresses. Please enter the school through the front entrance where you will be welcomed and directed to the correct area. There will also be a chance to look at your children's books before you leave.

It has been a pleasure to see so many of you attending our WOW (work of the week) Assemblies. It is wonderful to see the pride the children take in their work while their proud parents are able to see the certificate presentation. There is a definite buzz around the school as raffle tickets (given for excellent work and behaviour) go into the tombola. We are now also drawing our reading challenge draw on Friday as part of the celebration, so the reading challenge slips can now be brought in on a Friday morning rather than on Mondays.

So far it has been a most enjoyable term and as mentioned earlier we look forward to seeing you next week.

Mr Murray

Co-Headteacher
