

We promote spiritual development by:

- ❑ Wondering about life's big questions, developing curiosity and a sense of awe through exploring beliefs, values and meaning.
- ❑ Exploring religious stories, symbols and practices, using creativity and communication to express personal reflections and connections.
- ❑ Reflecting on beliefs and experiences, using critical thinking and commitment to consider purpose, identity and the wider world.

We promote moral development by:

- ❑ Considering ethical questions and moral choices within different religions, using curiosity and critical thinking to explore right and wrong.
- ❑ Discussing values and beliefs respectfully, communicating openly and collaborating to understand different viewpoints.
- ❑ Applying moral learning to everyday life, showing commitment to fairness, kindness and responsibility in actions.

Personal Development in Religious Education at Trimley St Mary School

We promote social development by:

- ❑ Exploring how religions and beliefs shape communities, developing curiosity and communication about shared values and social responsibility.
- ❑ Collaborating in discussions and group activities, using critical thinking and respect to understand different viewpoints and build empathy.
- ❑ Celebrating diversity through shared learning, showing commitment to inclusion, kindness and positive relationships.

We promote cultural development by:

- ❑ Exploring religions and beliefs from around the world, developing curiosity and communicating respectfully about diverse traditions.
- ❑ Comparing cultural practices and rituals, using critical thinking to understand similarities and differences and valuing different perspectives.
- ❑ Celebrating cultural diversity through stories, art and festivals, showing commitment to respect and appreciation of different beliefs.
